DIVISION MEMORANDUM

Date: March 14, 2019

No. 78 s. 2019

AMENDMENT OF EXISTING STUDENT HANDBOOK/STUDENT MANUAL/LEARNER'S DISCIPLINE MANUAL PERTAINING TO STUDENT DISCIPLINE POLICIES TO CONFORM TO REGIONAL ORDER NO. 007 S. 2018 AND SUBMISSION OF THE AMENDED POLICIES FOR REVIEW

To:

Public Schools District Supervisors
All Public/Private Elementary and Secondary School Heads
All Others Concerned

MAR 15 2019

1. As a result of the review of Student Handbooks, Student Manuals, Learner's Discipline Manual, and/or School Policies pertaining to Student Discipline of the different schools in the Division, the Review Committee found out inconsistencies with our DepEd Child Protection Policy, specifically on offenses and the imposition of penalties.
2. Hence, all schools are hereby enjoined to amend their existing student discipline manuals to conform to Regional Order No. 007 s. 2018 on the Basic Guidelines in the Development of Learners' Discipline Manual.
3. Upon amendment, the concerned schools shall immediately submit the amended school policies for the review by the Review Committee not later than April 30, 2019. The said policies shall be approved by the Schools Division Superintendent before the start of classes for School Year 2019-2020, to be effective on said school year.
4. Attached is Regional Order No. 007 s. 2018 for your reference.
5. For the information and guidance of all concerned, immediate dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.

Enclosure to Regional Order No. 007 2018 018
Basic Guidelines in the Development of Learners' Discipline Manual

Basic Guidelines in the Development of Learners' Discipline Manual

I. BACKGROUND

Every school shall maintain discipline inside the school campus as well as outside the school premises when learners are engaged in activities authorized by the school. The School Head shall have authority, accountability and responsibility for creating an environment within the school that is conducive to teaching and learning. Teachers shall be deemed persons in authority when in the discharge of lawful duties and responsibilities, and shall, therefore, be accorded due respect and protection. Therefore, the school shall impose appropriate and reasonable disciplinary measures in case of offenses or infractions of good discipline.

These guidelines shall be included in the Child Protection and Anti-Bullying Policy of the school, and Learner's Discipline Manual/Code of Conduct.

To aid in the creation of the Learner's Discipline Manual, the following Rights and Responsibilities, and Obligations of the Learners as outlined in Batas Pambansa Bilang 232 and DO No. 40, s. 2012 must be emphasized:

A. B.P. 232

Section 9. Right of Students in School - In addition to other rights, and subject to the limitation prescribed by law and regulations, and student and pupils in all schools shall enjoy the following rights:

1. The right to receive, primarily through competent instruction, relevant quality education in line with national goals and conducive to their full development as person with human dignity.
2. The right to school guidance and counseling services for decisions and selecting the alternatives in fields of work suited to his potentialities.
3. The right of access to his own school records, the confidentiality of which the school shall maintain and preserve.

4. The right to the issuance of official certificates, diplomas, transcript of records, grades, transfer credentials and other similar documents within thirty days from request.
5. The right to publish a student newspaper and similar publications, as well as the right to invite resource persons during assemblies, symposia and other activities of similar nature.
6. The right to free expression of opinions and suggestions, and to effective channels of communication with appropriate academic channels and administrative bodies of the school or institution.
7. The right to form, establish, join and participate in organizations and societies recognized by the school to foster their intellectual, cultural, spiritual and physical growth and development, or to form, establish, join and maintain organizations and societies for purposes not contrary to law.
8. The right to be free from involuntary contributions, except those approved by their own organizations or societies.

CHAPTER 3 Duties and Obligations

Section 15. Duties and Responsibilities of Students - In addition to those provided for under existing laws, every student shall:

1. Exert his utmost to develop his potentialities for service, particularly by undergoing an education suited to his abilities, in order that he may become an asset to his family and to society.
2. Uphold the academic integrity of the school, endeavor to achieve academic excellence and abide by the rules and regulations governing his academic responsibilities and moral integrity.
3. Promote and maintain the peace and tranquility of the school by observing the rules and discipline, and by exerting efforts to attain harmonious relationships with fellow students, the teaching and academic staff and other school personnel.
4. Participate actively in civic affairs and in the promotion of the general welfare, particularly in the social, economic and cultural development of his community and in the attainment of a just, compassionate and orderly society.

Basic Guidelines in the Development of Learners' Discipline Manual

- ii. Identification (ID) cards shall be provided to students at no cost to them.

The school administration shall fund these from their MOOE.

While the general policy is that the wearing of a school uniform shall not be required in public schools (as embodied in DepEd Order No. 45 s. 2008), it is necessary to provide guidance on what constitutes proper school attire. The following principles should serve as a guide:

- i. A student's basic right to go to school, study and learn is of paramount importance and should be respected and promoted at all times.
- ii. A student's attire should reflect respect for the school as an institution for learning.
- iii. A student's attire should not become a cause for discrimination particularly for students belonging to a lower socio-economic status.
- iv. Promoting physical hygiene and proper school decorum is part of the teaching-learning process in schools, thus a student's attire and physical appearance should manifest learnings from this process.

Given the above principles, the suggested attire for elementary and secondary learners may be:

- For Male Learners –
 - Polo shirt/T-shirt with sleeves – any plain color, with a minimum prints
 - Pants (long or short) – any color
 - Footwear - any
- For Female –
 - Dress, skirt and blouse, blouse and pants – any color, print
 - Footwear-any

Learners with existing uniforms may continue using these uniforms, if they so desire, in order to avoid incurring additional costs for new attire.

Learners are discouraged from wearing expensive (signature or designer brands) or flashy clothes, tight-fitting pants/blouses/dresses, mini-skirts, short shorts, blouses with plunging necklines, hip-hop pants for boys, and sleepwear.

A learner who violates the above guidelines is required to present a letter of explanation from his/her parents or guardians or to bring them to school for a short conference with the section adviser or guidance counselor as the case may be.

- c. Suggested haircut for boys: at least 1 inch above the ear and 3 inches above the collar line.

A learner who is not in proper haircut is required to present a letter of explanation from his/her parents or guardians or to bring them to school for a short conference with the section adviser or guidance counselor as the case may be.

2. Private Schools:

- a. Pursuant to DepEd Order No. 88 s. 2018, the following are the guidelines:

Section 133. Absences. A pupil or student in every private school who incurs absences of more than twenty (20%) percent of the prescribed number of class or laboratory periods during the school year or term should be given a failing grade and given no credit for the course or subject. However, the school may adopt an attendance policy to govern absences of its pupils or students who belong to the upper half of their respective classes.

Section 157. Attendance and Punctuality. Regularity of attendance and punctuality are required in all classes. A pupil/student who has been absent or has cut classes is required to present a letter of explanation from his/her parents or guardian or to bring them to school for a short conference with the section adviser or guidance counselor as the case may be.

Enclosure to Regional Order No. 0072018018
Basic Guidelines in the Development of Learners' Discipline Manual

Suspension – a penalty in which the school is allowed to deny or deprive an erring learner of attendance in classes for a certain period.

Exclusion – a penalty in which the school is allowed to exclude or drop the name of the erring learner from the school rolls.

Expulsion – an extreme penalty in which the erring learner is excluded from admission to any public or private school in the Philippines which requires the prior approval of the Secretary.

VII. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- A. Paramount in the formulation of the of the Learners' Discipline Manual is to highlight the concept of "Positive and Non-Violent Discipline of Children." Positive Discipline is a way of thinking, and a holistic, constructive and proactive approach to teaching that helps children develop appropriate thinking and behavior in the short and long-term and fosters self-discipline. It is based on the fundamental principle that children are full human beings with basic human rights. Positive discipline begins with setting the long-term goals or impacts that teachers want to have on their learner's adult lives, and using everyday situations and challenges as opportunities to teach life-long skills and values to learners.
- B. Therefore, it is emphasized that the Department has a zero tolerance policy for any act of child abuse, exploitation, violence, discrimination, bullying and other forms of abuse.
- C. All Learners' Discipline Manuals of the public and private schools with Recognition status shall be submitted to the Schools Division Office on or before February 28, 2019 for the review by the Review Committee composed of the Attorney III, Division Child Protection Coordinator, and at least one Child Protection Specialist.
- D. The review committee has sixty (60) days from the submission to review and recommend to the SDS for approval provided that all manuals must be approved before June 1, 2019 for public schools and recognized private schools. For private schools applying for permit, the manual shall be submitted during the application or renewal of permit for review by the committee within sixty (60) days from receipt.
