ORIENTATION-SEMINAR ON COMPREHENSIVE EMERGENCY PROGRAM FOR CHILDREN
 (CEPC) OR R.A. 10821 FOR ITOGON SCHOOLS

To: Public Schools District Supervisors/District-in-charge
 School Heads, School DRRM Coordinators
 Itogon 1 and 2 Districts

AUG 20 2019

1. As part of DepEd SDO Benguet and Cordillera Disaster Response and Development Services, Inc. (CorDisRDS) continuing partnership for the protection and safety of our learners, a seminar on R.A. 10821 or the Children's Emergency Protection Act will be conducted at Hotel Elizabeth, Gibraltar St., Baguio City, on August 21 and 22, 2019.
2. The objectives of the seminar are for the participants to:
 - a) Appreciate the importance of protecting children;
 - b) Understand the legal basis for the protection of children;
 - c) Articulate the salient features of the Children's Emergency Protection Act;
 - d) Describe the process of formulating the CEPC; and
 - e) Enumerate the components and expected outcome of the CEPC.
3. Target participants for the said seminar are:
 - > One (1) participant each from the District Offices (Itogon 1 and 2)
 - > School Heads or School DRRM Coordinators of all the schools in Itogon 1 and 2.

For the school participants, it is encouraged that the school heads will be the one to attend said seminar for the simple reason that they are the ones who lead in school planning. It is expected that the learnings gained in this seminar will be incorporated or reflected in the school programs and projects.
4. Meals and snacks for the participants will be shouldered by CorDISRDS, Inc. while transportation expenses may be charged to school MOOE and/or other local funds, subject to the accounting and auditing rules and regulations.
5. For more information and queries, please contact Ms. Jovelyn F. Lomong-ey, CCDRR Program Manager, CorDisRDS, Inc. with cellular phone no. 0929-484-6232 or at landline no. (074)-442-6108. Please confirm your participation to Ms. Lomong-ey for logistics purposes.
6. For information, compliance and immediate dissemination of all concerned.
