DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 468 s. 2023

To: School Governance and Operations Division
Public Schools District Supervisors and District Heads
School Heads of Stations of Field Nurses
School Health Section Personnel

School Based Feeding Program (SBFP) Mid-Program Implementation Review for SY
2023-2024 cum Recognition of WASH in Schools (WINS) Best Implementers

1. As a means to monitor and evaluate the completed activities and feeding days of the School Based Feeding Program (SBFP) for SY 2023-2024, this office, through the School Health and Nutrition Unit, will conduct a Mid-Program Implementation Review (Mid-PIR) with program implementers in schools.
2. The following are primarily expected during the activity: synchronization of cycle menu based on available food commodities and school calendar, re-visit of arrangements on delivery/distribution/feeding, identification of best practices, issues & concerns regarding the program implementation.
3. In addition, validated schools with 3-Star Level Rating for WINS implementation CY2022 will be recognized during the activity. Please see list attached herein.
4. To engage involvement, all school health personnel and school heads of WINS Best Implementers are expected to attend the activity on December 18, 2023, at the Function Hall of Dap-ayan Restaurant, Km.5 Pico, La Trinidad, Benguet. The program will start at 8:30 AM.
5. Meal and snacks will be charged from SBFP FY2023 funds. Travel expenses will be charged from local funds subject to usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.
6. Immediate dissemination to all concerned is directed.
