Online LAC Session on Hard-to-Teach Competencies in the ALS Program

In preparation for the upcoming Accreditation and Equivalency (A&E) Test scheduled on March 1, 2026, all ALS teachers are enjoined to attend the Online Learning Action Cell (LAC) Session on Hard-to-Teach Competencies on January 30, 2026, from 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM.

This activity seeks to strengthen instructional delivery by equipping ALS teachers with effective strategies for addressing hard-to-teach competencies, thereby enhancing readiness for the A&E Test and ensuring quality learning outcomes for ALS learners.

The session will be facilitated by developers and discussants from Benguet National High School, who shall convene at the Red Room, SDO Benguet.

To ensure smooth participation, all attendees are advised to join the session from locations with strong internet connectivity. The official link to the online session shall be posted in the ALS Group Chat (GC).

This memorandum also serves as official travel authority for the participants to the said activity.

For guidance and compliance.
