CONDUCT OF DIVISION-WIDE HYBRID REVIEW CLASSES ON ALS
 LEARNING STRANDS 1-6

In line with the Division's commitment to strengthen the delivery of the Alternative Learning System (ALS) program and to ensure the readiness of learners for the upcoming Accreditation and Equivalency (A&E) Test, a Division-Wide Hybrid Review Class will be conducted covering Learning Strands 1-6. This initiative aims to provide learners with comprehensive review sessions facilitated by designated resource speakers, combining both face-to-face and online modalities.

The Division-Wide Hybrid Review Classes aim to:

1. Reinforce learners' mastery of competencies across Learning Strands 1-6.
2. Provide opportunities for interactive discussion and clarification of key concepts.
3. Address gaps in learning through guided facilitation by resource speakers.
4. Prepare learners for the upcoming Mock Test and the official A&E Test by simulating review and assessment conditions.
5. Ensure equitable access to review sessions through hybrid delivery, accommodating learners in Community Learning Centers (CLCs) and those joining online.

The Schedule of Review Classes are the following:
